Additional Information:

Who are McKinney-Vento Liaisons?

Under subtitle VII-B of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, every school district is required to designate a liaison for students experiencing homelessness. Homeless liaisons have a number of legal responsibilities under the Act, including identifying youth who meet the definition of homeless and are unaccompanied. The U.S. Department of Education oversees the education subtitle of the McKinney-Vento Act. For more information, see:

<https://nche.ed.gov/>

What are HUD-funded Shelters?

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) administers funding for homeless shelters and services under Title IV of the McKinney-Vento Act. These funds are distributed to communities through a competitive grant process.

For more information, see: https://www.hud.gov/program_offices/comm_planning

What are RHYA-funded Shelters?

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services administers the Runway and Homeless Youth Act programs. These programs provide funding for Basic Centers, Transitional Living Programs, and Street Outreach programs that serve runaway and other unaccompanied homeless youth. For more information, see:
