

Dallas College State Aid Certification

Drug Conviction Certification

Drug conviction certification is required both on the federal and state level. The drug certification at the federal level is asked on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The drug certification at the state level is required through your acknowledgement of the following question. Please use caution when answering the below question as mistakes or inaccuracies will delay the processing of your funds.

Have you ever been convicted of a felony or an offense under Chapter 481, Health, and Safety Code (Texas Controlled Substances Act) under the law of ANY other jurisdiction involving a controlled substance as defined by Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code?

OR

<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes. I have been convicted of a felony or a crime involving a controlled substance.
<input type="checkbox"/>	No. I am certifying that I have not been convicted of a felony or crime involving a controlled substance.

I understand that if I fail to provide accurate information, I may be required to reimburse the institution for all or a portion of aid received, which may include money for penalties and other charges. In addition, inaccuracy to this question may result in future financial aid ineligibility.

Child Support Certification

Dallas College requires verification of your eligibility to receive state funds. Please use caution when completing this form, as mistakes or inaccuracies may result in delays in the processing and/or distribution of state funds.

Texas Family Code, Section 231.006, Ineligibility to Receive State Grants or Loans or Receive Payment on State Contracts, prohibits the payment of state funds under a grant, contract, or loan to a person, including a student, who is obligated to pay child support and is more than 30 days delinquent in paying that child support.

Texas law further provides that a person, including a student, who is ineligible to receive payments for the reason state above shall continue to be ineligible to receive payment from the state under a grant, contract, or loan until:

- all arrearages have been paid.
- the obligor is in compliance with a written repayment agreement or court order as to any existing delinquency; or
- the court with jurisdiction over the child support order has granted an exemption from the obligation as part of a court-supervised effort to improve earnings and child support payments.

As required by Section 231.006, I, the undersigned, certifies to the following:

Note: If you have been granted a written repayment agreement or court order as to any existing delinquency or an exemption from your child support obligation as part of a court-supervised effort to improve earnings and child support payments, please select "Eligible."

Please choose one option below:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Eligible. Under Section 231.006, Family Code, I certify that I, the undersigned, am eligible to receive the specified grant, loan, or payment and acknowledges that this grant may be terminated, and payment withheld if this certification is inaccurate.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Ineligible. I certify that I, the undersigned, am more than 30 days delinquent in paying child support and that I am therefore ineligible under Section 231.006 to receive the specified grant.

I understand that if I fail to provide accurate information, I may be required to reimburse the institution for all or a portion of aid received, which may include money for penalties and other charges. In addition, inaccuracy to this question may result in future financial aid ineligibility.

I further understand that it is my obligation to notify Dallas College, Financial Aid Office, if my eligibility status changes at any time during my enrollment with Dallas College.
